WM. H. JARVIS
Candidate for the Republican
Nomination
FOR SHERIFF

To the Republican Voters:
I take this method of calling your further attention to my candidacy for the Republican nomination for Sheriff of Washington County, and give a brief history of myself for your information.

I am a son of George Jarvis, an old citizen of Johnson Township. I am 34 years of age, a resident of Leonard, a town and a farmer by occupation. My whole life with the exception of a few years in the west has been spent in this community, and any one who knows me will I think testify as to my integrity.

My education was obtained in the common schools of this community and I believe it to be sufficient to qualify me for the clerical duties of the sheriff's office.

Should I be favored with the nomination and be elected at the general election, I pledge myself to discharge the duties of the office impartially and with the utmost effort to render satisfaction to the people who have placed me in this position of trust.

I earnestly solicit the support of all Republican voters and will appreciate with gratitude the assistance you may render me at the primary election.

Very respectfully,

WM. H. JARVIS

ST. LOUIS LAWYERS ENDORSE
WALTHER FOR JUDGE OF
ST. LOUIS COURT OF APPEALS.

Upon a vote of the republican members of the St. Louis bar taken this week, Lambert G. Walther, candidate for the republican nomination for Judge of the St. Louis Court of Appeals received 41 votes and his two opponents 23 and 16 votes each respectively.

Mr. Walther is forty-four years of age and has been engaged in the practice of the law for the past 24 years. He was the city counselor of St. Louis for several years and has charge of some of the most important litigation in the history of the City.

He is a member of the firm of Muench, Walther & Muench and a director in the German Mutual Life Insurance Company and the Broadway Saving Trust Company.

Judge R. M. Bomberger and Henry Caenfeld, the only living republican former Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals, have issued to the lawyers of the district the following high endorsement of Mr. Walther's candidacy.

To the Members of the Bar of the Judicial District of the St. Louis Court of Appeals:

Gentlemen—
Being thoroughly familiar with the qualifications of Lambert G. Walther, Esq., a prominent attorney of this city, we take pleasure in recommending him as a highly desirable candidate for nomination and election to the position of Judge of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.

Mr. Walther's high moral standing, legal learning, industry and fearlessness are fully recognized in this community, where he had the opportunity to demonstrate the possession of these qualities in the position of City Counselor, which position he filled for a number of years with distinguished ability.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) R. E. ROMBAKER,
HENRY S. CAULFIELD.

Missouri should treat itself to a change of government this year.
